Cerebro 2020

Vision

About

This event provides participants a chance to showcase their imagination power in the form of a comic story. It is a group event where participants are requested to come in group of 3. They have to use their imagination to create a comic story. Topics will be given on the spot. The comic can be created using a link provided by the organizers.

Rules and Regulations

- It is a group event where participants are requested to come in a group of 3.
- They have to click the pictures of the campus during the events and using their imagination they have to put their captures in form a comic story.
- Comics can be created using a link provided by organizers.
- Any form of plagiarism will lead to disqualification.
- Any form of disturbance caused, may lead to disqualification.
- Winners will be decided by the judge.
- In case of any discrepancy, the Organizer's decision will be final.